Our Customer Satisfaction Motto: "We're not happy, until you're not happy"

Skill Building Night Wall is 4 yards long. Concealment optional. Not limited.

Stage 1:

Start centered in front of the wall. At signal move right and using cover engage T1 with 2 shots. Emphasis is on proper footwork to put the shooter into a good shooting position.

Stage 2:

Start centered in front of the wall. At signal move right and using cover engage T1 and T2 with 2 shots each. Emphasis is on proper footwork to put the shooter into a good shooting position.

Stage 3:

Start on target at left side of wall. Gun loaded with 3 rounds. At signal move right and using cover engage T1 and T2 with 2 shots each. Reload from slide lock.

*We will compare stages 3 and 4 to determine if a Reload with Retention is better than a Slide Lock Reload in this circumstance.

Stage 4:

Start on target at left side of wall. At signal move right and perform a reload with retention while moving behind the wall. Using cover engage T1 and T2 with 2 shots each.

Stage 5:

Start 2 yards from T1 and T2. A no shoot slight obscure T2. The farther away you move from T2 the more of T2 is covered by the no shoot.

String 1: At signal present while stationary and retreat before you shoot, continue to retreat to cover while engaging T1 and T2 in tactical sequence. Retreat to cover and engage T3 with 2 shot.

String 2: At signal present and retreat before you shoot, continue to retreat to cover while engaging T1 and T2 in tactical sequence. Retreat to cover and engage T3 with 1 shot.

Emphasis here is to determine which target to engage first to give the best chance of avoiding the no shoot. Also movement to cover while retreating is tested here as well.

String 6: Putting it all together

Start 2 yards from T1 and T2, engage T1 and T2 on the retreat with 2 each in tactical sequence. Retreat to wall and move right to port in the wall and engage T3 and T4 with 2 each. Continue moving down the wall and engage T5 and T6 from cover. T6 is partially covered by a no shoot to either side.
