Our Customer Satisfaction Motto:
"Were Not Happy Unless Your Not Happy"

Stage 1: Holiday Shopping Not limited. Concealment, requirec

You have finished a long day of shopping for gifts and are finally about to head home. While loading the gifts into your car, 3 members of the local inner city youth group approach you from behind and decide that they want your gifts and money. With back to targets, facing cover, and holding baby (simulated gifts) with both hands, at the buzzer, drop the gifts and run to the other side of cover. Draw and engage each target (3 yards away) with 3 shots in tactical sequence.

Stage 2: Police Station Attack Not limited. Concealment optional

You are at the police station being questioned about your previous shooting when some other members of the youth group decide that they want retaliation by infiltrating the police station to get you. You are not armed since your gun is now evidence. Your gun and all magazines will be placed on the table with the gun unloaded and slide forward. Starting seated on the bench on the back wall of the range, at the buzzer you must go through the open range booth to the table. Load your gun and recover your spare magazines. Shoot T1 (3 yards) 3 times. Move to cover and shoot T2 (5 yards) from the left side of cover with 3 shots. From the right side of cover, shoot T3 (7 yards), T4 (5 yards), and T5 (3 yards) 3 times while pieing around cover. Avoid the dreaded swinging no shoot.

Stage 3: Another Car Attack Limited. Concealment optional.

After finally being released from the police station, you are ready to get home. As you exit the police station, there are 6 members of the youth group that were waiting outside for the other members to return from their assault. When they notice that it is you that exits and not their buddies, it leave them rather unhappy. One member approaches you and when he gets close, he begins to draw a revolver. Since your gun is still in quickly disarm him. Remembering that there is a disparity of force, you decide to engage all 6 targets. But wait, you only have 6 shots so make them count. Starting with the revolver at the low ready, at the buzzer engage T1 (approx 1 yard) with 1 head shot. Then engage T2-T6 (7 yards) with 1 head shot each in any order.

Stage 4: The Last Stand

After a day of hell and fighting thugs, you have finally made it home to your spouse and children. Luckily you have more guns at home and put a new one on that is very similar to your previous gun that was taken into evidence. You are relaxing in your favorite chair spending time with your spouse thinking about your crazy day. Don't get too comfortable yet. The last living members of the inner city youth group are coming after you and this time they have thought it out. You suddenly hear glass breaking in various rooms of your house when suddenly you notice two members making their way through the window in front of you. You must get to your child's room immediately. Starting seated, at the buzzer you will draw and engage T1 (5 yards) and T2 (3 yards) with 2 body shots each in any order while seated. Get up and move to Cover 1 and while pieing the right side, engage T3 (5 yards) and T4 (7 yards) with 2 body shots each. Then move to Cover 2 and pie the right side and engage T5 (7 yards) and T6 (3 yards) with 2 body shots each. Damn, you just realized that they really came prepared this time because they are all wearing body armor. As you realize this, T6 has shot your support hand. You must now engage the targets strong hand only with a head shot to each. Engage T6 then T5 with a head shot then switch to the left side of Cover 2 and pie and engage T4 and T3 with a head shot each. Move to Cover 1 and pie and engage T2 and T1 with a head shot eac. Careful, while you were engaged with the other members, T1 took your spouse as a hostage.
