Our Customer Satisfaction Motto:

"We're Not Happy Until You're Not Happy!"

Stage 1: Don't Cut Her

St. Louis County, MO - Nov, 2003: A man broke into a home and tried to rob the 73-year old homeowner and his wife. The homeowner went to the bedroom to get his wallet but came back with his gun. The robber tried to leave, with the wife as a hostage, but was shot by the homeowner for his trouble.

Stage 2: Cincinnati Kids

Cincinnati, OH - Sep, 1999: As a couple was closing their store one evening three male teenagers entered and tried to rob them. One of the robbers knocked the wife down and held a gun to her head. The husband grabbed his gun and fired several shots, hitting all three.

Stage 3: Barber Shop Duo

Rockford, IL - Sep, 2001: Two men entered a barber shop and attempted to rob it. When the barber didn't react fast enough one of the men fired a shot, just missing the barber's head. The barber responded by reaching into a drawer and pulling his own gun.

Stage 4: Hitting the Links

Atlanta, GA - Dec, 1998: Three men attempted to rob several golfers enjoying a day on the course. Unknown to them there was a fourth member who came and, around the corner seeing what was happening, stopped the cart and retrieved his gun from his golf bag.

Stage 5: Annie, Get Your Gun

Las Vegas, NV - Dec, 2001: A homeowner was assaulted by a man and woman who came to his home under the pretense of buying jewelry he'd advertised in the paper. When the homeowner brought out the jewelry, the man began to assault him with a blunt object while the woman grabbed the jewelry and ran. The homeowner's adult daughter heard his cry for help, retrieved his gun and stopped the assault and robbery.

Stage 6: Driveway Holdup:

Forrest City, AR - Dec, 1999: A husband and wife arrived home one night and stepped from their car directly into a life-or-death struggle. Two masked men appeared in the driveway and pointed a gun at the wife's head demanding money. The husband pulled his pistol and fired. The husband was wounded and both gunmen were dying.
